Train doctors who would want to stay and work for the area

Success of primary care teams

Exemplary professionalism EKHUFT medical student of the year

Grace Dabson Year 4 Student, placed at QEQM Hospital, Margate part of the EKHUFT said: “So far, the experience has been everything I was hoping for. Practical, challenging, and with plenty of opportunities to talk to patients. We’ve been made to feel part of the workforce, and I have spoken to many of the doctors about living locally and how they are excited for KMMS to develop ‘homegrown’ students like myself, and how they hope to retain students who come to study here.”
